Library Bulletin

ISSUED AUGUST 1973

SE 016 836

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

This is the first issue of the Library Bulletin in its new format. In response to requests from IPPF member associations we have decided to give some idea of the content and coverage of the most important items added to the Central Office Library. Commencing with this issue annotations will appear with the entries for significant publications which have arrived at Central Office during the previous three months.

In order that you should not miss hearing about other useful publications, we recommend that you scan regularly the "Bibliography of Family Planning and Population" produced by the Simon Population Trust, 141 Newmarket Road, Cambridge CB5 8HA.

Arrangement of this issue

Books only are included in the list and are arranged in classified order according to the classification scheme at present in use in the IPPF Central Office Library.

The main outline of the schedules is as follows:

1. General Office Management and Administration
2. Contraceptive Methods
3. Family Planning (General)
4. United Nations; Conferences, etc.
5. Population

    5.3 Africa
    5.4 America
    5.5 Asia
    5.6 Europe
    5.7 Oceania
    5.8 USSR

6. Religious, Moral, Ethical and Political Attitudes to Family Planning
7. Medicine
8. Education, including Sex and Population Education
9. Communication, Publicity, History, etc.

An alphabetical list of authors appears at the end of each issue, with classification marks used as cross references.

Purchase of Books

An alphabetical list of relevant publishers and their addresses will be found at the end of this issue, and in the interest of speed and efficiency those wishing to obtain copies are advised to order direct from the publisher or their local bookseller. It is not possible for the IPPF Central Office to deal with orders for material,other than IPPF publications.

Prices

The price for all books is given as the publishers' list price, which is not necessarily the price that the IPPF paid. Where the price is indicated as 'not known', in many cases, the book may be free of charge, but this should NOT be assumed when ordering. It is sometimes possible to arrange a small discount on large orders with a local bookseller.

Loans of Books

It is not feasible for IPPF to lend books from the Central Office Library overseas, because of the great risk of loss, damage and delays, and high postal costs involved. Readers of the Library Bulletin may be able to borrow certain books from IPPF libraries situated in the following Regional Offices:-

IPPF Regional Office for Africa,
P.O.Box 30234,
Nairobi, Kenya.

IPPF Publications List

An up-dated list of IPPF publications is appended to each issue of the Library Bulletin.

IPPF Annotated Subject Bibliographies

A list of these bibliographies appears at the end of each issue of the Library Bulletin. Some titles are now available in print. All titles are annotated and up-dated at approximately annual intervals. Single copies are available upon request and larger quantities are available to those able to describe their intended use.

This book is the first major study on UNCTAD. It describes and analyses the origins and birth of UNCTAD, its role and activities in the field of trade and development, its institutional traits and evolution. It also discusses the process of decision-making in UNCTAD.

RICH, William
Smaller families through social and economic progress. Washington, Overseas Development Council, 1973. 73 pages. Figs. Tables. Overseas Development Council Monograph No.7. Price: U.S.$2.00 5.24

This study, gathering together existing evidence, argues that appropriate policies for making health, education, and jobs more broadly available to lower income groups in poor countries contribute significantly toward the motivation for smaller families that is the prerequisite of a major reduction in birth rates. It argues that combining policies that give special attention to imrpoving the well-being of the poor majority of the population with large-scale, well-executed family planning programmes should make it possible to stabilize population in developing countries much faster than reliance on either approach alone.

URBANIZATION, MIGRATION etc

JANSEN, Clifford J. editor 5.27
Readings in the sociology of migration. Oxford, Pergamon, 1970. 402 pages. Tables. Price: £1.75

A collection of papers that review the problems created by internal migration in various countries.

This is a comprehensive guide for all women awaiting childbirth. The author describes the conception and development of a baby - the symptoms and signs of pregnancy - the antenatal care available and the care a woman should take of herself during pregnancy.

EDUCATION

TA, Ngoc Châu 8.0
Population growth and costs of education in developing countries. Paris, Unesco, 1972. 313 pages. Figs. Tables. Price: £2.35

The main purpose of this survey was to discover the effect on education costs of population growth given various assumptions as to the future trend of fertility and mortality. The comparison of the various factors in cost increases and their respective weight offers a considerable number of pointers as to the educational development policy to be followed. It demonstrates the considerable effort which will have to be made in order to extend and improve education under conditions of rapid population growth.

BURGESS, Tyrrell 8.012
Home and School. London, Allen Lane, 1973. 246 pages. Illus. Price: £2.75

The author explains some of the latest findings on the mental, emotional, and physical development of children. He considers the value of nursery schooling and then explains the emotional and educational experience of primary and secondary schooling. This involves some description of the legal compulsion of education, the methods of teaching that are current today, the different reactions of children to schools and the ways in which parents can interpret and support their children's education.
